

Should I Borrow Federal Loans or Private Loans?

This decision involves many factors and it is your responsibility to research your loan options and decide what is best for your family. For the student, Federal Subsidized Loans offer the best value because interest does not accrue while students are in school. For additional financing, Parent PLUS Loans or Private Education Loans may be considered. We hope that the following flow chart and comparison guide (on the back) will help guide you.

If you have any questions about your loan options, please feel free to contact the LBC Financial Aid Office at 717.560.8254 or financialaid@lbc.edu.

More tips to help you make a wise loan decision:

- Check your credit report at www.annualcreditreport.com and correct any errors.
- You may apply for more than one private loan within a 30 day period. Logon to www.elmselect.com for a list of lenders – research, compare and apply online.
- Compare the Private Loan rates and terms to the Federal Direct Loan Options.
- Consider:
 - a. Fixed or variable interest rate and fees
 - b. Total repayment cost
 - c. Forgiveness benefits
 - d. Discounts or interest rate reductions
- Use the calculators at www.finaid.org to compare the overall cost of each loan.
