Copyright Infringement

Unauthorized distribution of copyright material may result in civil and criminal penalties. More information about copyright violations and associated fines can be found in Chapter 5 - Copyright Law of the United States of America . Refer to section 506 - Criminal Offenses for penalties. In addition to these penalties, students found to be in violation of copyright law may also lose their eligibility for federal student aid funds. Copyright infringements are considered violations of LBC's Community Covenant and may be subject to sanctions under the Disciplinary & Judicial Process as found in the Student Handbook.
