LANCASTER BIBLE COLLEGE

These positions were obtained almost right after graduation for the following school year. Graduates who are pursuing a Master's in Social Work are included in our placement percentages as an extension of being employed in the field. Those pursuing their MSW are serious about the field and desire to gain additional education to broaden their employment opportunities within the field of Social Work. The following Graduate School locations have served LBC graduates within the past 5 years:

Positions:

- Graduate School locations
 - University of Pittsburgh
 - Millersville University
