

The Ally Center exists to: cultivate academic growth through individualized services and mentorship as each student discovers a God-given life thesis.

We offer high-quality personalized academic attention through our three services: Academic Mentoring Services, Writing Services, and Disability Services. Regardless of where you are on your academic journey, Ally Center staff and mentors will come alongside you.

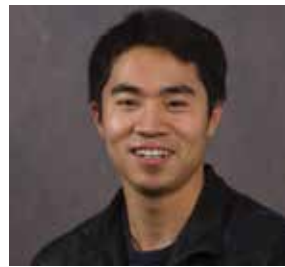

The Ally Center provides academic support, at no additional cost, at all LBC locations and to all current LBC students: traditional undergraduate, accelerated undergraduate and online, as well as seminary and graduate. At our Lancaster campus, the Ally Center is located on the fifth level of the Teague Learning Commons (TLC).

Hear from Our Students

"The Ally Center is the best quiet place for me to study with other students. As English is my second language, if I have questions I do not understand, I can find tutors to help me."
– Russell Sun

"What I love about the Ally Center is that everyone is willing to help you and see you through your rough times and good times. The Ally Center has helped me stay strong in my academics and to keep pushing through to the end!" – Sara Petersen

"As a student athlete with a very busy schedule, it's important to have a place where I can go and get good, quality studying done. The Ally Center is that place for me because it's quiet and comfortable; it makes me feel like I can just relax and focus on getting my school work done. Also, the staff and tutors are always willing to help." – Spencer Lockard

Academic Mentoring Services

Academic Mentoring Services (AMS) provides peer and professional mentors who give students the individualized attention needed to achieve success in the college classroom. Whether planning a project, organizing a weekly “to-do” list, or developing study strategies, AMS in the Ally Center helps students achieve their academic goals. Students may book recurring weekly one-on-one appointments or course-specific appointments as needed at any point during the semester. AMS also offers course-specific study groups and online appointments for select courses. Students seeking help with homework and test preparation in their math courses are able to visit our Math Lab for individualized support.

AMS is open during school semesters for tutoring appointments or private study during daytime and evening hours. To schedule an appointment, visit tutor.lbc.edu.

Writing Services

The Writing Center provides writing services to support students during any stage of the writing process with their written assignments in any discipline. Whether talking through a difficult assignment, brainstorming, refining a rough draft, developing citations, formatting an assignment in MLA or APA, or providing any level of writing support, peer and professional writing mentors are eager to help students in the writing process.

One-on-one Writing Services appointments can be scheduled as needed or on a recurring basis, both on-campus and online. To schedule an appointment with the Writing Center, visit tutor.lbc.edu.

Disability Services

LBC’s Disability Services Office (DSO) provides accommodations for students with disabilities to ensure access to all programs, facilities, and activities of the college based on Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), and their amendments. Accommodations are made on an individual, case-by-case basis, after submission of documentation to the Disability Services Coordinator.

Students with disabilities may submit documentation and schedule an appointment with the Coordinator at their earliest convenience so that accommodations can be arranged as soon as possible. Students who suspect they may have an undiagnosed disability that is affecting their academic performance at LBC are also encouraged to discuss their situation with the Coordinator, who may then refer the student for a more extensive evaluation.
